

Field Book No. 1 Page 29

19

Surveyed August 22nd 1907, for R. S. I. H. and W. F. Lawson and W. J. Stores, Virginia, by W. M. Crooks, S. Y. C. Surveyor General, Virginia, District, York County, in the State of Virginia, located in Poquoson and being within the following limits and bounds, commencing at a Station on the edge of bank on Tray Bay, thence running N. 61° 45' E, 144' to a Station on W. J. Stores' line; thence along Lawrence's line S. 48° 0' E, 1153.6' to a Station on Tray Bay; thence S. 10° 0' W, 1361' to a Station on Tray Bay; thence along Tray Bay N. 58° 30' W, 306' to a Station; thence along Tray Bay N. 2° 15' E, 928' to a Station; of Tray Bay; and thence on the South east by the line of W. J. Stores, on the South east each by the line of the Commonwealth and on the South, West and South West by the Tray Bay; according to the plat and survey records attached. Survey made by W. M. Crooks, S. Y. C. on September 1907.

W. M. Crooks
Surveyor of York County
Virginia, County of York, State of Virginia.

W. J. Stores
J. H. Huggett

W. J. Stores, J. H. Huggett, and others being duly sworn make oath that they well and truly believe that the boundaries in this said survey were correctly ascertained and that they well and truly believe that the boundaries in this said survey were correctly ascertained and that they well and truly believe that the boundaries in this said survey were correctly ascertained.

W. J. Stores, J. H. Huggett, and others being duly sworn make oath that they well and truly believe that the boundaries in this said survey were correctly ascertained and that they well and truly believe that the boundaries in this said survey were correctly ascertained.